

Translate Documents For Visa Application | Translations For Visa Supporting Documents

Before the translation, it is necessary to coordinate with the customer the most relevant data on the requirements to the visa documentation (types of documents that have to be either translated or notarially assured or epistolized, etc.). Translate Documents for a Visa application – zooFamily Online Travel Community serves this support for Bangladeshi.

When you make a visa application you will need to submit a translated version of any documents that are not written in English.

For example:

- birth certificate
- bank statement
- marriage certificate

You must submit these translated documents along with the original documents.

The translated documents must be:

- Made by a professional translator or translation company
- confirmation by the translator that it is an accurate translation of the original document
- details of the translator or translation company credentials
- The translator's full name and signature or the full name and signature of an authorized official of the translation company

If any of the requirements are not met, then you will have to get the documents translated again. Your visa application could be refused if the translated documents you submit do not meet these requirements
